About Kill The Imposter

Kill The Imposter is an Orlando, FL based Deathcore band formed in late 2018. Pulling musical inspiration from literally everywhere, this five piece band's intention is to make you move in any capacity you see fit. The heavier and more aggressive the better. Danny Arrieta (guitar), one of the founding members of Kill The Imposter, and Chris Acosta (guitar) are the primary music writers. They have help with arrangement by Johnny Nobody (vocals) as well as Nick Colvin (drums) carrying the aggressive speed and heavy grooves, and Wilson Bembry (bass), who shares and blends the thundering lows and technical playing within all of their music.
